ourdiu.com | Shared by Shaker Abdullah

Daffodil International University

Department of Computer Science and Engineering
Course Code: BNS101
Course Title: Bangladesh Studies
Quiz: 01 Batch: 70_M
Time: 45 minutes Marks: 2*7.5=15

Question 1:

A newly elected government in Bangladesh announces that it will revise the country's foreign policy to better address contemporary challenges such as climate change, migration, and great-power competition. Policymakers are debating whether the traditional doctrine of Bangladesh's foreign policy remains effective in the current international environment.

Based on the above scenario, answer the following:

a. Critically analyze the relevance of the principles enshrined in Article 25 of the Constitution in addressing contemporary global challenges. (7.5 marks) (CO1)
b. Assess whether the doctrine "Friendship to All, Malice Towards None" remains a practical guide for Bangladesh's foreign policy in the 21st century. (7.5 marks) (CO1)