1.	Bangladesh has a young population and a large and young labor force, offering a demographic advantage. Fertility is declining, and life expectancy is rising. Challenges include jobs, gender gaps, and automation, so education and skills development are key. Illustrate how Bangladesh can optimize its demographic dividend for maximizing Gen-Z's role. Interpret the relationship between society's orientation towards uncertainly avoidance and willingness to accept social innovations such as digital transformation and adaptation of new technology.	10	CO1
2.	Bangladesh's foreign policy is based on peace, non-alignment, and friendly relations, guided by Article 25, which prioritizes welfare and justice. It enables the country to collaborate with other nations, join organizations like SAARC and the UN, and foster trade, thereby shaping a positive global role. Utilize the enduring fundamental principles of Bangladesh's foreign policy to resolve the contemporary global challenges.	5	CO1
3.	The official name of Bangladesh is the People's Republic of Bangladesh. The name signifies the identity and upholds the spirit of this nation. Fatema, a researcher, is exploring the evolution of Bangladesh's name focusing on historical migration, trade, and environmental factors that shaped the socio-cultural development. Using Fatema's research, summarize a visual representation of how the name of Bangladesh evolved from its early references to its modern form.	5	CO2
4.	No constitution is perfect. It is considered as a living document which is not static but changes over time to adapt to modern realities and sustain the aspirations of citizens. Analyze the essential attributes of a good constitution and examine them against the features of Bangladesh's constitution. How does it compare with your expectation?	5	CO2
